1.2 Constitution. The Constitution of Chi Psi Fraternity (the “Constitution”) shall be the supreme law for governance of the Fraternity. For purposes of compliance with the Act, whereby certain provisions of the Act may be overridden only by the provisions of a corporation's articles of incorporation or Bylaws (as defined below), the Constitution shall be deemed to be additional Bylaws of the Fraternity. In the event of any conflict between the Constitution and these Bylaws, the terms of the Constitution shall govern.

1.3 Ritual and Traditions of Chi Psi Fraternity. The Ritual and Traditions of Chi Psi Fraternity, as created and amended from time to time under the Constitution, shall be deemed to be a part of the Constitution for purposes of subsection 1.2.

1.4 Rules of Procedure. The “Rules of Procedure for Chi Psi Conventions,” as adopted and amended from time to time, shall be deemed to be additional Bylaws of the Fraternity. In the event of any conflict between the “Rules of Procedure for Chi Psi Conventions” and these Bylaws, the “Rules of Procedure for Chi Psi Conventions” shall govern.

1.5 Bylaws. These National Bylaws of Chi Psi Fraternity (the “Bylaws”) shall contain such regulations as may be necessary to carry out the Constitution and to provide for the welfare and management of the Fraternity. All capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall be incorporated by reference, and have the same meaning, as defined in the Constitution. Use of the singular shall be deemed to include the plural, and vice versa, whenever the context requires.

Section 2 Membership

2.1.2 Recognition. Every member shall be known to other members as “Brother.”

2.1.3 Symbol. The Chi Psi Badge shall be the sole symbol of membership in the Fraternity.

2.1.5 Brother for Life. Every Brother shall be a Brother for life, except provided hereinafter.

2.1.6 Solicitation. Brothers may be solicited for annual contributions to the Fraternity, The Chi Psi Educational Trust, Inc. (“The Chi Psi Educational Trust”), and affiliated entities, but such contribution or non-contribution shall in no way affect their continued membership.

2.1.7 Hazing. No Brother of the Fraternity shall engage in any form or any act of hazing at any time. For all purposes related to the Fraternity, and unless otherwise defined, hazing shall be defined outlined in the Chi Psi Risk Management Policies.

2.2 Brothers.

2.2.1 Categories. Each Brother shall be considered either an active or alumnus Brother.

2.2.2 Active Brothers. An “active” Brother of the Fraternity are those Brothers who are currently enrolled as undergraduate students at any institution at which an Alpha of Chi Psi is located, except as provided in sections 2.4 and 2.6.

2.2.3 Alumni Brothers. All Brothers who are not active Brothers shall be considered an “alumnus” Brother.

2.3 Initiation.

2.3.1 Time of Initiation. Normally, initiation and the beginning of membership in the Fraternity occur during a Brother’s time as an undergraduate student, when a prospective member will progress from pledge to active Brother.

2.3.2 Initiation of an Alumnus Brother.

2.3.2.1 - It is permissible for one to be initiated and begin membership in the Fraternity as an alumnus Brother.

2.3.2.2 - Prior to initiating a man as an alumnus Brother, the #1 of the Alpha desiring to initiate the alumnus Brother and the President of the corresponding Alpha Alumni Corporation or Alpha Alumni Advisory Board must submit a written request to initiate to the Executive Council. The Executive Council must approve any such request for initiation as an alumnus Brother unless good cause can be shown why such a request should not be granted.

2.3.2.3 - An alumnus initiate shall be subject to the same selection criteria standards as undergraduate initiates and shall require the same affirmative vote of the Brothers of an Alpha to be initiated as undergraduate initiates.

2.3.2.4 - An alumnus initiate shall be separately designated from other initiates, although he shall be considered duly initiated alumnus Brother. He shall be designated a Brother of the Alpha at which he was initiated. At the new initiate's discretion, after consultation with the Executive Director, the new initiate shall be given a year designation corresponding to one of the following years: the year he graduated from college; the year he should have graduated from college had he attended (i.e., the year that is four years from the year in which he finished or should have finished secondary school); or the year of his initiation. This year designation policy is hereinafter referred to within the brotherhood of Chi Psi as the "Hattendorf Designation."

2.4 Dormant Brothers.

2.4.1 In General. An active Brother may become a "dormant" Brother under this section.

2.4.2 Hardships. An active Brother may seek to be considered a dormant Brother if he has a demonstrated hardship which impacts his ability to be an active Brother. Hardships may include financial difficulties, family emergencies, illness, and academic-related needs.

2.4.3 Procedure for Alpha Approval.

2.4.3.1 Meeting and Request. An active Brother who desires to request dormant status (the "proposed dormant Brother") shall discuss his particular situation with the #1 of the Alpha, and the #1 of the Alpha shall review with the proposed dormant Brother the requirements of section 2.4, and shall also discuss resignation. If after such discussion, the proposed dormant Brother still desires to request dormancy, then he shall submit a written request for dormant Brother status to the #1 that specifies his reasons, states the period of time during which he expects to be a dormant Brother, and explicitly acknowledges that he will abide by the restrictions in section 2.4. The #1 shall distribute the request to the Alpha.

2.4.3.2 Alpha Vote. At the next Alpha Meeting after a request for dormancy has been distributed to the Alpha, the proposed dormant Brother shall become a dormant Brother upon the affirmative vote of a majority of all Actives eligible to vote. The Alpha shall notify the Executive Director promptly upon an active Brother's dormancy by sending a copy of the dormant Brother's signed written request and confirmation of the Alpha's vote.

2.4.4 Dormant Brother Prohibitions. A dormant Brother shall not:

- f. Participate in any Chi Psi social activity; or
- g. Enjoy any other benefits of active membership in the Fraternity.

2.4.5 Restoration of Active Status.

2.4.5.1 - A dormant Brother who desires to be restored to active status may submit a written request to the #1 of the Alpha stating his desire to be restored to active status as of a specific date. The #1 shall distribute the request to the Alpha.

2.4.5.2 - At the next Alpha meeting, the active Brothers shall consider the dormant Brother's request to be restored to active status. If a majority of all active Brothers eligible to vote approves the request, the dormant Brother shall be restored to active status. The Alpha shall notify the Executive Director of the change in status.

2.4.6 Written Notices. The written requests required by section 2.4 must be submitted to the #1 of the Alpha at least one week prior to the next Alpha meeting. The written notice may be handwritten, typewritten, or in electronic form, but it must be signed by the proposed dormant Brother or dormant Brother. The #1 must then forward the request in full to all active Brothers at least three days prior to the next Alpha meeting. Such period of time must be during the regular school calendar and cannot include vacation time or examination time.

2.4.7 Failed Vote to Approve Proposed Dormant Brother Status. If the Alpha does not approve the request under section 2.4.3.2, the proposed dormant Brother shall continue as an active Brother and shall pay all amounts due in a timely manner. If the proposed dormant Brother refuses either to pay his required amounts or to resign from the Fraternity, such refusals shall be grounds for suspension under section 2.6 or expulsion under section 2.7. The Alpha shall remain responsible for all amounts payable for Fraternity dues, insurance, fees, and such other financial obligations for any active Brother who refuses to pay but is neither suspended nor expelled.

2.4.8 No Effect on Discipline. Nothing in section 2.4 shall in any way diminish the authority of an Alpha to discipline an active Brother as set forth in section 2.6.1.

2.5 Resignation.

2.5.1 Active Brothers.

2.5.1.1 - An active Brother may resign from membership in the Fraternity at any time by submitting a written letter of resignation to the #1 of his Alpha. The #1 informs the Alpha and the Executive Director that the Brother has resigned.

2.5.3.1 - A Brother who resigns shall not, by his resignation, be relieved of the oaths and responsibilities accepted by him during initiation into the Fraternity.

2.5.3.2 - A Brother who resigns shall not, by his resignation, be relieved of any debts owed by him to his Alpha or to the Fraternity.

2.5.3.3 - The name of any Brother who resigns shall be stricken from the roll of the Fraternity brotherhood. He shall no longer be eligible for the privileges of the Brotherhood.

2.5.3.4 - Any individual who has resigned from the Fraternity shall not be eligible for membership at a later date.

2.6 Discipline.

2.6.1 Discipline of an active Brother by an Alpha. Any discipline less than expulsion may be imposed upon an active Brother by his Alpha in accordance with that Alpha's bylaws. Each Alpha should have a judicial board to address discipline issues with the Brothers of the Alpha and should handle discipline based on the rules the Alpha has established for its judicial board.

2.6.2 Discipline of an Active Brother by the Executive Council.

2.6.2.1 - The Executive Council, by the affirmative vote of a majority of its members, may suspend the membership privileges of an active Brother.

2.6.2.2 - A Brother whose membership has been suspended shall be known as a "suspended Brother."

2.6.2.3 - A suspended Brother shall be treated as a dormant Brother and shall have the same restrictions placed on him that are placed on dormant Brothers outlined in section 2.4.4 of these Bylaws. If such suspended Brother is living in the Lodge at the time his membership is suspended, the Executive Council may permit him to continue to reside in the Lodge for the remainder of the then-current academic year but no longer than such remaining academic year.

2.6.2.4 - The membership of a suspended Brother shall remain suspended for a period of time specified by the Executive Council at the time of the vote to suspend such member. Such period of time specified may be for a definite period of time or for an indefinite period of time. In no event shall any suspension last beyond such time as such Brother would be considered an alumnus Brother.

2.6.2.5 - Any suspended Brother may have such suspension revoked and be restored to all rights and privileges of membership by an affirmative majority vote of the Executive Council.

2.6.2.6 - It is the responsibility of each Alpha to enforce suspensions.

2.6.3 Discipline of an Alumnus Brother. Any discipline less than expulsion may be imposed upon any alumnus Brother by the Executive Council. In such cases, the Brother affected shall be given the opportunity to be heard, in person or in writing, at a meeting of the Executive Council. The Executive Council shall then adjudicate a discipline by majority vote. Any such discipline may be revoked by a majority vote of the Executive Council.

2.7 Expulsion of an Active Brother.

2.7.1 In General. Any active Brother of the Fraternity may be expelled by the Alpha of which he is an active Brother according to the procedure outlined in these Bylaws.

2.7.2 Alpha Expulsion Procedure. In order for an Alpha to expel an active Brother the following procedure must be followed:

2.7.2.1 - At least two (2) active Brothers of the same Alpha as the active Brother being considered for expulsion (the “proposed expellee”) must submit an expulsion request to the #1 of the Alpha. The expulsion request must be in writing and must set forth the reasons requested for expulsion.

2.7.2.2 - A copy of the expulsion request must be given to the proposed expellee and to the Presidents of the corresponding Alpha Alumni Corporation and Alpha Alumni Advisory Board at or about the same time as the expulsion request is given to the #1 of the Alpha.

2.7.2.3 - The Alpha must consider the expulsion request not more than two (2) weeks after it has been delivered but not less than seventy-two (72) hours after it has been delivered to all parties. If a formal meeting of the Alpha does not fall within this time frame, the #1 shall call a special meeting to consider the expulsion request.

2.7.2.4 - All active Brothers, the Presidents of the corresponding Alpha Alumni Corporation, Alpha Alumni Advisor Board, and the Executive Director must be notified of the date and time of the meeting at which the expulsion request will be considered.

2.7.2.5 - The President of the Alpha Alumni Corporation and Alpha Alumni Advisor Board, or their designate, shall have the right to attend the meeting at which the expulsion request is considered.

2.7.2.6 - At the meeting where the expulsion request is considered, the active Brothers requesting expulsion, the Presidents of the Alpha Alumni Corporation, and Alpha Alumni Advisory Board, and the proposed expellee shall be given a generous opportunity to be heard in the matter of the expulsion.

2.7.2.7 - If, after ample opportunity for a thorough discussion of the expulsion request, four-fifths (4/5) of all active Brothers of the Alpha shall vote for the expulsion, the proposed expellee shall be immediately expelled.

2.7.2.8 - The #1 of the Alpha or other officer shall inform the Executive Director that the active Brother has been expelled.

2.7.3 Expulsion of Active Brother by Executive Council. For a grave cause, as determined by the Executive Council, any active Brother may be expelled by the Executive Council.

2.7.4.3 - The Executive Council must consider the expulsion request not more than six (6) weeks after it has been delivered but not less than two (2) weeks after it has been delivered. If a scheduled meeting of the Executive Council does not fall within this time frame, the Chair of the Executive Council shall call a special meeting to consider the Expulsion Request. This special meeting may be held by telephone or electronically.

2.7.4.4 - At the meeting where the expulsion request is considered, the Brothers requesting expulsion and the proposed expellee shall be given a generous opportunity to be heard in the matter of the expulsion.

2.7.4.5 - If, after ample opportunity for a thorough discussion of the expulsion request, four-fifths (4/5) of the entire Executive Council shall vote for the expulsion, the proposed expellee shall be immediately expelled.

2.7.5 Expulsion of an Active Brother for Misconduct. Expulsion for some types of misconduct may require greater discretion than expulsion for other reasons.

2.7.6 Expulsion Procedure for Brother Accused of Misconduct that will not be determined by the full Alpha. In order for an Alpha to expel an active Brother for misconduct without taking the charge to the full Alpha, the following procedure must be followed:

2.7.6.1 - The #1 of the Alpha in which the accused is a member must contact the Executive Director or his designee to discuss the facts of the allegation and any other factors which might influence the decision to expel. The Executive Director or his designee shall determine if the misconduct is of a nature that would necessitate the Alpha's Executive Committee consideration rather than the full Alpha taking an expulsion vote.

2.7.6.2 - The Executive Director or his designee shall determine if the Alpha's Executive Committee must provide an opportunity for the accused Brother to be heard before a vote to expel.

2.7.6.3 - If, after ample opportunity for a discussion, the Alpha's Executive Committee votes for the expulsion, the proposed expellee shall be immediately expelled.

2.7.6.4 - The #1 of the Alpha or other officer shall inform the Executive Director that the active Brother has been expelled.

2.7.6.5 - Based upon the factors leading to expulsion, the Executive Director or his designee and the #1 of the Alpha shall determine how Brothers of the Alpha shall be notified of the expulsion.

2.8 Expulsion of an Alumnus Brother.

2.8.1 In General. An alumnus Brother may be expelled by the Executive Council.

2.8.2.2 - A copy of the expulsion request must be given to the alumnus Brother being considered for expulsion and to all alumni entities associated with the Alpha at or about the same time as it is delivered to the Executive Council.

2.8.2.3 - The Executive Council must consider the expulsion request not more than six (6) weeks after it has been delivered but not less than two (2) weeks after it has been delivered. If a scheduled meeting of the Executive Council does not fall within this time frame, the Chair of the Executive Council shall call a special meeting to consider the expulsion request. This special meeting may be held by telephone or electronically.

2.8.2.4 - At the meeting where the expulsion request is considered, the Brothers requesting expulsion and the proposed expellee shall be given a generous opportunity to be heard in the matter of the expulsion.

2.8.2.5 - If, after ample opportunity for a thorough discussion of the expulsion request, four-fifths (4/5) of the entire Executive Council shall vote for the expulsion, the proposed expellee shall be immediately expelled.

2.9 Effect of Expulsion. Expulsion carries the following effects:

2.9.1 Any individual expelled from the Fraternity shall remain bound by the oaths and responsibilities accepted by him at his initiation.

2.9.2 Any individual expelled from the Fraternity shall not, by reason of expulsion, be relieved of any debts owed to his Alpha or to the Fraternity.

2.9.3 The name of any individual expelled from the Fraternity shall be stricken from the rolls of the brotherhood forever, and he shall never again be eligible for membership.

3.2 Designation. Every Alpha shall have a separate Greek letter designation, which designation shall in all cases be preceded by the Greek letter Alpha. The designation may be a single Greek letter, or a single Greek letter followed by the Greek letter Delta or the Greek letter Tau. The Executive Council shall determine the designation.

3.3 Alpha Governance. Every Alpha of Chi Psi shall be governed by these Bylaws and by local Bylaws written and adopted by the Alpha. No local Bylaws shall conflict with the requirements of this section except as the Executive Council may provide for special exceptions.

3.3.1 All local bylaws must provide that the local bylaws are subordinate to the Fraternity Bylaws and that the Fraternity Bylaws shall control whenever any conflict exists between the local bylaws and the national Bylaws.

3.3.2 All Alpha bylaws must adhere to the requirements of the Fraternity Bylaws and to any regulations of the host institution concerning recruitment, pledging, and initiation. The requirement that members must be male is not subject to any regulation by the host institution.

3.3.3 All Alpha bylaws must provide, at a minimum, a formal process for recruiting members and the voting process to issue bids.

3.3.4 All Alpha bylaws must provide, at a minimum, that a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of all current active Brothers is required to initiate a pledge as a Brother.

3.4 Colonies.

3.4.1 Limitation. The provisions of section 3.4 are to be considered a general outline and may be modified by the Executive Council by its sole action to adapt to the peculiar circumstances of each colony situation.

3.4.2 Creation of a Colony. From time to time, in accordance with Article III of the Constitution, the Executive Council shall see to the extension of the Fraternity by establishing Colonies at appropriate colleges or universities. The expectation is that each such Colony shall become a new Alpha or shall be the revival of a Dormant Alpha (as defined in section 3.5.5). The establishment of a Colony may follow either a request by an existing group of students or action by the Fraternity to recruit a group of interested students.

3.4.3 Status of Individuals. As soon as practical after the Executive Council action, student members of the Colony shall become pledges and shall begin the pledge education process.

3.4.4 Alumni Support Group. No Colony shall be established until the Executive Council determines that a group of interested and qualified alumni Brothers has been formed, educated, and prepared to work with the Colony.

The Executive Council shall develop and implement comprehensive procedures, requirements, and expectations for creating a Colony, helping it to grow and thrive, monitoring its progress, and growing it into an Alpha. Such materials are to be updated regularly based on experience. Such procedures, expectations, and requirements shall be given to pledges and to alumni support group. When a particular Colony has met all expectations and requirements set forth for it, it is appropriate that the Executive Council entertain a motion to recommend to the delegates to the next annual Convention that the Colony be granted a charter to become an Alpha on a date and in a location determined by Executive Council for the Initiation of the pledges. If the Colony has not met all expectations and requirements, the Executive Council may waive one or more of them but only by disclosing such waiver to the delegates to the Convention who will vote on whether to grant the Colony a charter. The adoption of such motion shall require the affirmative vote of four-fifths (4/5) of the entire Executive Council. If the next Convention fails to approve the Executive Council's recommendation, the Colony shall remain a Colony until such time as a new recommendation adopted under this paragraph is approved by a subsequent Convention or until such time as the Executive Council dissolves the Colony.

3.5.3.4 - If upon due consideration the Executive Council determines that the problem or problems at an Alpha are such that the Alpha should be disciplined, the Executive Council, by majority vote, may impose any discipline it deems reasonably appropriate to the situation. Such discipline may include, but is not limited to, the imposition of a monetary fine or the limitation of Alpha activities. Immediately after voting to discipline an Alpha, the Executive Council shall direct the Executive Director to notify, as appropriate, the Alpha's officers, its active Brothers, and its Alpha Alumni Corporation and Alpha Alumni Advisory Board's officers in writing of the reason for the discipline, the disciplinary measure imposed, and the steps the Alpha should take to rectify the problems that lead to the imposition of the disciplinary measure.

3.5.3.6 - If upon due consideration the Executive Director determines that a problem or problems at an Alpha are such that the Alpha should be disciplined immediately, the Executive Director may impose any immediate discipline he reasonably deems appropriate. The Executive Director shall notify the Chair or, in his absence, the Vice Chair of the Executive Council promptly of any such discipline and the Executive Committee of the Executive Council must ratify every such act of discipline imposed by the Executive Director within forty-eight (48) hours or the action taken by the Executive Director expires.

3.5.4 Suspended Alpha.

3.5.4.1 - A suspended Alpha is one that has had its charter suspended by the Executive Council. An Alpha may be suspended for any reason determined by the Executive Council, including, but not limited to, the loss or neglect of the Fraternity's traditions, low membership, disciplinary problems, risk management violations, incidents of hazing, and failure to meet financial obligations. The Executive Council may set detailed criteria for suspension and the effects thereof. During the suspension period, the suspended Alpha may conduct initiations only if supervised by a designee of the Executive Council.

3.5.4.2 - A suspended Alpha may not conduct activities that are expressly prohibited or limited by the Executive Council in its notice of suspension to the Alpha.

3.5.4.3 - As soon as the Executive Council is satisfied that a suspended Alpha has corrected those matters that caused its suspension, the Executive Council may, by majority vote, lift the Alpha's suspension and restore it to active Alpha status.

3.5.5.3 - Immediately upon dormancy, all assets of such Dormant Alpha, including, but not necessarily limited to, all Fraternity regalia and all records, shall be delivered to the care of the Executive Council. The Executive Council shall appoint a Dormancy Trustee to supervise the delivery of such assets to the Executive Director or to a place specified by him.

3.5.6 Membership Review.

3.5.6.1 - The Executive Council may, at any time, interview the individual active Brothers and pledges of an Alpha or Colony to determine each man's fitness to remain an active Brother or pledge. Such a series of interviews shall be called a "Membership Review."

3.5.6.2 - A Membership Review shall be conducted at any Alpha or Colony at any time that the Executive Council determines that such a Membership Review is necessary.

3.5.6.3 - When the Executive Council votes to Conduct a Membership Review, the Executive Director shall appoint one or more review panels to conduct the Membership Review. Members of the alumni entities of the Alpha under review and other interested Brothers may be invited to join the panel in conducting the Membership Review interviews as voting or non-voting members of the panel.

3.5.6.4 - The review panel shall conduct the Membership Review and report its findings back to the Executive Council as soon as is practicable. The review panel's report should include any appropriate recommendations. The primary purposes of each Alpha Alumni Advisory Board are to assist its Alpha in whatever manner is pertinent to the Alpha, establish an advisory structure that ensures the Alpha follows best practices, set benchmarks for undergraduate leaders, ensure efficient undergraduate leadership transitions, and when necessary inquire into the undergraduate operations to address judiciary action.

4.3 Creation. The Central Office, with the guidance of the Executive Council, shall establish an Alpha Alumni Advisory Board at every Alpha. When establishing a colony, an Alpha Alumni Advisory Board should be established prior to undergraduate recruitment.
